

Geospatial Intelligence Management

Description

This 5-day course is a participative session for middle management intelligence professionals that examines effective intelligence management in support of the operational geospatial planning process.

Prerequisites

Should have some intelligence and/or imagery analysis training, or is part of an Geospatial/Imagery Intelligence Analysis Course.

Target Audience

Geospatial Intelligence Managers

Method of Delivery

Lessons and Hands-on Exercises

Course Materials

Hard Copy and Digital materials including:

- Intelligence Guides
- Various related handouts

